J. L. Crowley, Esq., late of the Marble Hill Herald, one of most prominent and best editors in the Southeast, is now engaged on the Poplar Bluff Citi-

The New York Sun unhesitatingly pronounces General Hancock's letter to General Sherman "the most excellent and extraordinary letter on the Constitution, on law and on public military and civil duties ever written by an American General."

Our Southeast exchanges endeavor in various ways, to explain away the results of the late Convention. We now give the true elucidation: North Missouri hoggishness. This, coupled with South Missouri chuckleheadedness, wins for them and loses to us every time.

Fifteen hundred and twelve votes were cast in this county on the 31st ult. And yet it was denominated a "Democratic" primary election. The vote for Tilden in 1876 was 805. Our population in 1870, was 6,278; in 1880, 8,192. The total vote (Republican and Democratic) in 1876, was 1,191; in 1878, 777.

Our esteemed contemporary, the De Soto Herald, insists that "if all Democrats are not rebels, at least all rebels are Democrats." We might point out Mosby and Key and Longstreet as be- publican, and for several years, by aping living refutations of this sort of pointment of President Lincoln, recordbosh -- but what's the use of wasting | er of the District of Columbia, has debreath upon a sheet which convinces clared in favor of Hancock for next itself that Hancock is a Traitor?

Our Republican friends fished for the Hancock-Sherman letter long and patiently, and now they've captured it they don't seem to be happy. When the General said he had never written anything to be asbamed of, he appears to have told the exact truth. So far from the letter in question reflecting upon the character of either head or heart, it is an honor to him, and evidences that true statesmenship heretofore denied him by the enemy.

One Logan opened his mouth and lifted up his voice and spake as follows at the Republican headquarters in New York last Thursday:

"We have in the Democratic leader a man who has grown up in the army of the United States learning discipline, learning the exercise of power, learning only to command and obey as a soldier; away from civil pursuits, away from business habits, away from that which fits him for the business interests of the country and the welfare and harmony of the great nation."

Of course this cannot be the same Logan who was somewhat conspicuous at Chicago not long ago as an advocate of the nomination of General Grant whom that Logan vociferously described as "the silent soldier."

Hon. M. L. Clardy's renomination is now assured. Prior to the primary elections in St. Louis, which were held last Saturday, he lacked three votes, with that shown by Lander's canand he took in four delegates, with one ward to hear from. We congratulate the Democracy of the First District: Mr. Clardy is an able man, and with the experience gained in his first term, he will prove a valuable servant to the people. And when his next term shall have expired, we trust his constituents may give him another, and still another. We hear a heap of senseless howling against "third-termers," but if the West were a greater believer in them it would be all the better for her and her interests. None of the reasons which lie against keeping one man in the office of Chief Executive attach to the minor offices which lie next and are always within reach of the peo-

They Don't Consist.

[The New York World.] The Times informs us that the campaign was opened in Wilmington, N. C., on Monday last with a meeting at which 5,000 persons were present, many of them being "Democrats who eagerly listened to the excoriations of the speakers upon Governor Jarvis,' while simultaneously at New Orleans "the Garfield campaign was opened by an immense mass-meeting, which was paracterized by uneyne and unbounded enthusiasm." We fear that the Southern correspondents of our contemporary have been captured by Ku-Klux and White Leaguers, and with shotguns at their ears compelled to write these telegrams for the fiendish purpose of discrediting the eloquent editorials on the other pages which show so convincingly that at the South two or more Republicans are never allowed to gather and talk politics, unless, perchance in the depths of tics, unless, perchance in the depths of friendly swamps, where the panting fugitives read our contemporary, by the lurid light of their burning homes, while the hoarse bay of the baffled bloodhound floods the midnight air with mellow music sublimer far than that of brass bands.

Ku-Klux in Vermont.

Let anybody read the following gory dispatch going the rounds of the Northern press and then weep for the feeble, outrageously put upon and Ku-Kluxed people of Vermont: CAMPAIGN OUTRAGES.

U-KLUX IN VERMONT-BRUTAL ASSAULT ON A REPUBLICAN-ATTEMPT TO MAKE HIM HAUL DOWN HIS FLAG-OFFICERS AFTER THE RUF

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—The Times has a dispatch from Burlington, Vt., stating that William J. Farr has been brought there for medical treatment. He has had a Republicah flag fly-ing from his hotel at East Mindlebury, and was warned to take it down. Not doing so, some parties called him up at night on Thursday, gagged and dragged him into the road. He was taken into a barber's shop and asked if he would take down his flag. He re'used. The gang then held him while they shaved off his beard and all the hair on his head, making four scalp wounds with the razor. They then took him to the bank of Otter greek and took him to the bank of Otter creek, and asked him again if he would take down his flag. He refused. They then tied his feet to-gether, bandaged his mouth, and threw him nto the creek and drew him out by the rope three times. They then tied him to a tree, leaving him. He was found senseless there n Friday morning and taken home. He was erribly bruised, and the scalp wounds will lisfigure him for life. The sheriff and State attorney of Addison county are endeavoring to discover the ruffians. "To this complexion has it come at last!" In the very hotbed and stronghold of Radicalism, in a county in which there are 4,000 Republicans to 600 Democrats, a citizen is denied the inalienable privilege of flying a Garfield flag! Think of it, ye stalwart and shricking Rads, and then reflect that if 600 plucky Democrats in Vermont can bulldoze and ku-klux Garfield men and make them haul down beautiful banners, what chance have you in States where the majorities run the other way? Seriously, this is an awfully thin story, and cannot be expected to wash, but will serve some temporary purpose, no doubt. The man in charge of the bloody shirt business had better be diseharged at once if he cannot get up outrages outside of Vermont .- N. O. Dem-

Southeast Missouri got nothing at the State convention because she was torn to pieces by her sectional fights. The result is no more than could have been expected, and, it is hoped, will teach one of the fairest portions of our commonwealth a valuable lesson.-Kansas City Times.

THE INDIANA CAMPAIGN.

An Interview With Hon. Bayliss W. Hanna, of Terre Haute.

The Hoosier State Sure of a Demo-cratic Majority of Fifteen Thousand.

[St. Louis Times.] The Times reporter met Hon. Bayliss W. Hanna at Hurst's Hotel last evening and held a brief interview with him on the political situation in Indiana. Judge Hanna is the Democratic candidate for Congress in the Eighth District of his State, and has already delivered an excellent speech at a Demhas been published by the Central Com- crrtic Senatorial Convention. mittee and is being circulated as a campaign document.

In answer to a question by the reporter, Judge Hanna said the campaign would be formally opened in Indiana on next Saturday. Arrangements had been made by which at least two good speakers would address meetings to be held in every county of the State on that day "Will the Democratic candidate for Governor, Landers, be able to carry the State," asked the reporter. "He will beyond any question, by from 8,000 to 10,000 majority. Landers has taken the field himself, and he is gaining popular favor rapidly. He is a smart man, a scholar, a successful business man and one whose record is clear. The Republican candidate, Porter, is a | 3t very good man, too, but he is not developing strength that can compare

"Will Indiana go for Hancock, do you think?" "Oh, unquestionably Hancock and English will carry the State by at least 15,000 or 20,000 votes. The Democrats are wide awake and will make a vigorous and aggressive campaign. If there is any detending to be done it will be by the Republicans." "How do the Republicans appear to regard the charges of corruption, bribery, etc., which have been brought againt General Garfield?" "So far as the leaders of the Republican party in the State are concerned, of any other manufacture. they ignore the charges; they make no attempt to defend General Garfield, but port the ticket." "Do you know of any Republicans who have declared for Hancock?" "Numerous." "Have you personal knowledge of any Democrats who will vote for Garfield and Arthur?"

'Not one."

"Will the Republicans attempt to carry the State by the importation of ne-in the campaign in the State?" "He has already made several speeches. Senator McDonald, also, who expects to be his own successor in the Senate, will do effective work for both the national and State tickets. We have a number of other good speakers in the State who expect to take the field as soon as the campaign opens. We also expect some help from this and other States."

As to his own candidacy Judge Hanna spoke with great confidence. He ex-pected a hard fight, as in his district the vote was always close. "One reason why I think Indiana will go largely Democratic," added Judge Hanna, as the reporter started to leave, "is because of the deep interest taken by the Democrats in the campaign, and the steady and united manner in which they enter the struggle. majority."
